IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIVIL DIVISION

FREDERICK SHADDOCK, 520 N Street SW, S-316, Washington, DC 20024 Lot 0116 Square 0503 Plaintiff, v. OKSANA SHEMET SHADDOCK, 520 N Street SW, S-316, Washington, DC 20024 Defendant.	CASE NO. 2025-CAB-004804 EMERGENCY MOTION FOR IMMEDIATE ACCESS TO ESSENTIAL U.S. MAIL

COMES NOW Plaintiff, Frederick J. Shaddock, pro se, and respectfully moves this Court for an emergency order to allow him to retrieve his essential U.S. mail, including critical government and financial documents, from his mailbox. Defendant is obstructing his access with the assistance of Harbour Square. In support, Plaintiff states:

U.S. Code § 1701, is a Federal law making it a crime to willfully obstruct or retard the passage of the U.S. Mail. Individuals found guilty of this misdemeanor can face a fine, imprisonment for up to six months, or both.

1. Essential Documents Are Trapped in Mailbox. Plaintiff is being denied access to his marital mailbox #316 at his residence, 520 N Street SW, S-316. He is currently expecting and has reason to believe the following time-sensitive, essential items are in the mailbox:
   - His official, permanent District of Columbia Driver's License (the temporary paper license, issued by the DC DMV, after validating Plaintiff's residency in D.C., is valid only until November 17, 2025).
   - Correspondence from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regarding the parties' joint 2024 tax return. (ExhibitH_ShaddockTaxes2005-2024_WashingtonDCSsnRedacted.pdf)
   - New checks and bank statements from Pentagon Federal Credit Union (see ExhibitM_MailMalfeasance.pdf for prior evidence of this mail being withheld).
   - A paycheck from the Graduate School, USDA, where Plaintiff is has employed as part-time faculty for over 20 years (see ExhibitT_TeachingAtGraduateSchoolNearHarbourSquare.pdf). Defendant is unemployed since January 2025 and needs Plaintiff's financial support.
2. Plaintiff is Functionally Trapped. Plaintiff cannot access this mailbox without an elevator fob to return to his unit S-316. Leaving the building to conduct essential business, employment, stranding him in the lobby.
3. These Are Not Mere Personal Items. These are essential documents from U.S. Government agencies (DC DMV, IRS), a financial institution, and an employer. Their obstruction prevents Plaintiff from functioning legally and financially, proving his identity, and receiving his income.
4. Defendant's Obstruction Causes Direct, Irreparable Harm. Defendant's continued withholding of the mailbox key and elevator fob is causing immediate and escalating harm to Plaintiff's ability to work and comply with government requirements. This also causes harm to Defendant, his Dependent, who is unemployed.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court issue an immediate order:
a) DIRECTING the Harbour Square Cooperative to provide Plaintiff with a temporary elevator fob and access to mailbox #316 within 24 hours to retrieve his essential mail; or, in the alternative,
b) AUTHORIZING AND DIRECTING the Harbour Square Cooperative to immediately provide Plaintiff with his own permanent elevator fob and mailbox key.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Frederick J. Shaddock
