E-FILED 2025 MAR 20 9:18 AM JEFFERSON - CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF IOWA
IN AND FOR JEFFERSON COUNTY

Frederick Shaddock, Petitioner, pro se v. Oksana Shemet Shaddock, Respondent	Case No. CDCV402015 OBJECTION TO UNILATERAL FAKE DISMISSAL MOTION

COMES NOW the Petitioner, Frederick Shaddock, and states that he totally objects to the unilateral submittal of a document requesting the dismiss this divorce proceeding.

Petitioner just thirty minutes ago (3/20/2025 8:23 am) went to eFile to plan for the next hearing (3/30/2025) and is shocked that the Respondent has submitted a document to dismiss.

Petitioner has demonstrated his ability to submit document by himself via efile, and did not do so. The document submitted by Respondent's attorney appears to have been created by her. English is her second language, and she is not an attorney.

As evidence, the words "In Re the Marriage", "COME NOW", and "above-entitled action" are not what an attorney would type. Any attorney, and the Petitioner using ChatGPT Artificial Intelligence, knows that the words should be "In re the Marriage", "COMES NOW" and "above titled action." Respondent is not entitled to dismiss the divorce without the Petitioner's approval. The document is evidently and sadly fake. My alleged signature is from a graphic file, not by my hand. Nor was there an attempt to get such a life changing document notarized.

Respondent had ample opportunity to tell Petitioner that she asked her attorney to dismiss the divorce, and did not say so. Sadly, her attempt to stop the divorce without asking the Petitioner only further demonstrates her lack of concern with the rights of the Petitioner, her husband, and makes divorce all the more certain. She should know that property bought after marriage is marital property. Her attorney should also know better.

Petitioner prays that the date of the divorce status hearing on March 30, 2025 be restored, and held as scheduled. If the time slot has been allocated for another case, then Petitioner prays for a date at the convenience of the Court. .

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
/s/ Frederick Shaddock,
Petitioner
