Exhibit M: Mail Malfeasance, Monopolization, and Misappropriation

Oksana Shaddock has not let Frederick Shaddock get his mail for Harbour Square unit S-316.
He asks for a key or at least non-interference with his rights by the U.S. Postal Service laws.
Meanwhile Frederick allows Oksana to get all her mail at the Fairfield, Iowa house.

Frederick Shaddock is down to his last Pentagon Federal Credit Union check #400 and needs to order more checks, and no longer has the Arlington Virginia P.O. Box, but Oksana will not let him use the Box 316 in Harbour Square south building.

D.C. VOTER: THIS IS YOUR VOTER REGISTRATION CARD AND A GUIDE TO DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ELECTIONS

Dear Voter,

This official voter notification is provided to you as required by District of Columbia law; please review for accuracy. Party changes must be made no later than 21 days before an election. Your Voter Registration is permanent as long as you are a resident of the District of Columbia. If you move out of the District of Columbia, you must register in your new state to continue voting. Please keep your voter record current and up to date.

For information about registering to vote, mail ballots, and vote centers, contact the Board of Elections at 202-727-2525 or visit our website, http://www.dcboe.org.

Partisan Offices:

- Electors of U.S. President and Vice President
- Delegate to the U.S. House of Representatives
- Mayor of the District of Columbia
- Chairman of the D.C. Council
- 4 At-Large Members of the D.C. Council
- 8 Ward Members of the D.C. Council
- Attorney General
- 2 United States Senators
- United States Representative

Non-Partisan Offices:

- At-Large Member of the State Board of Education
- 8 Ward Members of the State Board of Education
- Advisory Neighborhood Commissioners

Ballot Questions:

- Initiatives
- Referenda
- Recalls
- Charter Amendments
- Advisory Referenda

Primary Elections are conducted for partisan offices so that voters registered with each major party can choose their party's nominees for offices in the General election.

General Elections are conducted to elect candidates for both partisan and non-partisan offices. All registered voters may vote for candidates of any party.

Please check your voter registration card (below) for accuracy of the information, especially your name, address, party, and date of birth.

If there are any errors, please contact us at www.dcboe.org or at 202-727-2525.
