IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF IOWA
IN AND FOR JEFFERSON COUNTY

In re the Marriage of FREDERICK JAMES SHADDOCK and OKSANA SHEMET SHADDOCK
Upon the Petition of FREDERICK JAMES SHADDOCK, Petitioner, And Concerning OKSANA SHEMET SHADDOCK, Respondent.	Equity No. CDCV402015 REQUEST FOR STAY AWAY ORDER

Since May 26, 2024 there is before the Court a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage of January 17, 2001 to Respondent who lives at the one bedroom marital condo on 520 N Street SW, Washington DC, 20024, too small for children. Petitioner purchased a family sized home at 806 North 4th in August 2006. But Respondent refused to move from DC. Petitioner and Respondent have lived apart about 80% of the time, a long distance marriage. They have now lived apart for over 5 months, since December 26, 2023.

Since there are no children, it is probable that the Court will simply award Respondent the DC condo marital property, worth over $300000, and Petitioner will get the Fairfield house worth $140000, to maintain the status quo, acceptable to the Petitioner. Petitioner presently lives with a female friend ("Guest"), who shall be named privately to the Court, if necessary.

Respondent has texted and said by recorded phone that she will physically force any Guest leave "her" Fairfield house and plans to fly from DC to Fairfield on June 3 to move her out. This will likely cause trouble. Petitioner prays to avoid similar threatening situations from previous near divorces in 2007 (CDCV400852), 2018 (almost filed), 2020 (almost filed), and 2021 (CDCV401806), and 2023 (CDCV401982). Respondent asked to stop these divorces, and Petitioner agreed. The following is an example of a threatening situation.

In March 2007, Petitioner and a female guest, Marie Tobiasson, were living at the Fairfield house, became close, and planned to marry upon Petitioner's divorce from Respondent. On 7/30/2007, Respondent served divorce papers (CDCV400852) to Respondent in DC via a professional process server. In August, Respondent came to Fairfield, demanded that Marie leave "her" house, physically threatened Marie, and the Fairfield Police were called to intervene.

Respondent stayed at the Landmark Inn, then went back to the DC condo, but continued to harass Marie by phone and email. Marie, pregnant at the time, felt so threatened that she called off the engagement, moved to her parents' home in Sweden, and gave birth to Petitioner's son there, to protect her self and son from Respondent. Marie cut off all communication with Petitioner, who pays monthly child support, and probably lives with a new man. So Petitioner agreed with Respondent to cancel the divorce and resume the marriage, however unstable.

This Petition is to prevent such a heart breaking, embarrassing, and potentially dangerous situation again. For years, Petitioner has encouraged Respondent to go out and meet some of the many men who are financially stable U.S. Government employees. Respondent is loving, dedicated to marriage, intelligent, and talented in computer graphics. She deserves a compatible husband.

Petitioner prays for a Stay Away Order on the Respondent until the Divorce hearing date to prevent a needless altercation between Guest and Respondent, or the Fairfield Police having to respond to a domestic dispute at 806 North 4th. A Police Report could hurt Respondent's Security Clearance for jobs in DC. This order will help Respondent to become unattached emotionally from Fairfield and Petitioner, and move on with her life. Petitioner promises to make sure any of Respondent's belongings in Iowa are kept safe, stored as she requests, or sent to her condo in DC.

Petitioner prays for the divorce hearing to be held via Zoom or electronic meeting, for the convenience of Respondent in Washington, DC.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

Frederick Shaddock
